This case was dismissed without prejudice under Fed. R. Civ. P. 41(b) on September 16, 2020. (Doc. 9, 10). The dismissal was based on Plaintiff's failure to keep the Court advised of his correct mailing address, failure to communicate with the Court, and failure to prosecute the proceeding. (Doc. 9). Plaintiff Hart did not appeal the dismissal of the case.

More than a year after the case was dismissed, Plaintiff Hart filed his Motion to Reopen and Consolidate Case and ReCalendar. (Doc. 11). In seeking to reopen the case, Hart does not cite to any rule of civil procedure. He seeks to reopen this case "because it is associated with cases recently filed and is essential to the proper processing and hurrying of the reconsideration of cases that are relevant to the proper application" of a number of other listed cases. (Doc. 11 at 1). He seeks to reopen this and twelve other cases that have previously been dismissed by the Court. (Doc. 11 at 1). He also seeks consolidation of 26 of his filed cases. (Doc. 11 at 1).

The only possible procedural basis for Hart's Motion to reopen would be under Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b). Because more than a year has elapsed since entry of Judgment, relief based on mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect, newly discovered evidence, or fraud under Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b)(1), (2), and (3) is unavailable to Plaintiff Hart. Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(c)(1). Relief on the ground that the Judgment is void or has been satisfied, released, or discharged is inapplicable to this case. Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b)(4), (5). Therefore, the only avenue available to Plaintiff Hart is "any other reason that justifies relief." Fed. R. Civ. P. 60(b)(6).

Hart's Motion does not articulate any reason that justifies relief. He does not even address the basis of the Court's September 2020 dismissal of this case. Instead, he claims, without any explanation as to how or why, that reopening of this case is essential to "processing and hurrying" of reconsideration of other cases. (Doc. 11 at 1). Processing and hurrying of other cases are not grounds justifying relief in this case under Rule 60(b)(6). The Court will deny Plaintiff Hart's request to reopen this case.

Plaintiff Hart also seeks to consolidate 26 other cases into this case. (Doc. 11 at 1). Under Fed. R. Civ. P. 42(a), the Court may consolidate cases that involve common questions of law or fact. Although Hart makes vague assertions that the cases he seeks to consolidate are associated with recently filed cases and are relevant to the proper application of other cases (Doc. 11 at 1), he does not identify any common question of law or fact involved in any of the listed cases. Moreover, it does not appear to the Court that any basis exists for consolidation of any or all of the cases filed by Plaintiff Hart. Many of the cases are, like this case, closed. In his pending cases, most of his complaints: (1) are not in proper form for civil rights cases; (2) are against different defendants (including federal, state, and local agencies and officers, other state and local correctional facilities, and private entities and individuals); (3) involve different dates of occurrence; and (4) although largely undecipherable, appear to have different factual bases. The Court will deny Plaintiff Hart's requests for consolidation.

IT IS ORDERED that the Motion to Reopen and Consolidate Case and ReCalendar (Doc. 11) is DENIED and this case remains CLOSED.
